SEALS and TALISMANS

from --- Ancient Mysteries-6th and 7th Bo

Moses, the Great Law Giver of Israel, acquired, as he resided at the Court of Pharaoh, many Egyptian Arts and Secrets in his constant intercourse with learned men. He wrote, we believe, the first five books of Holy Rites known as the five books of Moses. It is believed and known to very few that there are two more books written by him, known as the Sixth and Seventh Books of Moses.

The Sixth and Seventh Books of Moses are pronounced by many people the most wonderful works ever published. It is even said that millions never undertake any important steps in life relative to finance, exchange, health and the general welfare of man, without seeking from its pages ADVICE and GUIDANCE.

The Seals in the Sixth and Seventh Books of Moses embrace the four great divisions of the Spirits of the Air, Fire, Water, and Earth, together with their uses, and other POWERFUL SECRETS. We believe these engravings are exact copies of those used by the Israelites, Egyptians, etc., to accomplish their designs for good or evil. These wonderful seals are sure to educate and please you. The ART of OCCULT and PSYCHIC ANOINTING

HAVE YOU THE WILL AND FAITH?

A certain legendary book reveals the true magical secrets of compounds and formulas. Each Anointing Oil is described as to legend and use. (We refer you to Lewis de Claremont's Legends of Incense Herb and Oil Magic.) It has long been believed that odours have a curious effect upon mankind. Magicians of ancient and medieval times were accustomed to anoint their bodies with oils which drugged their senses and induced visions. Even in the days of the Exodus formulas for so-called Holy Oils were not unknown. Legendary Lore reveals that the Arabian Chemists and Magicians compounded oils for magical uses containing aromatics, fragrant extracts and spices.

AGUA DIVINA

AGUA DIVINA

The flower is fragile, delicate, dainty and sweet. Its fragrance, is subtle and alluring, it is enjoyed by everyone. So it is with the woman who is aware of these facts, for she makes certain that she, too, has a pleasant and fragrant aroma about her wherever she goes. This can be easily acquired by using Agua Divina in the bath or in the wash basin. The skin becomes refreshed and delicately fragrant. After the shower it is used as a rubdown, it produces an exhilarating feeling, fresh and radiant! Agua Divina is a very versatile preparation. It is used as a sick room deodorant and as a room freshener. It is sprinkled around a room, or sprayed, to perfume the air and at the same time it will rid the air of any sickroom odors. If it is sprayed within a room which has been newly painted, the room immediately becomes more liveable. During warm weather, Agua Divina is used because of the agreeable coolness and delightful aroma it gives to the body. Headaches due to excitement or nervousness may be relieved by applying cooling and refreshing Agua Divina to the temples and forehead. After removing make-up, never fail to massage the skin with Agua Divina. It stimulates the circulation and produces a warm tingling glow. Yes, the uses of this grand preparation are many: It is used as a rubdown for the sick, it has been found helpful when used against insect bites. People add Agua Divina to a pan of warm water for bathing their feet.

Men enjoy Agua Divina before shaving, it softens the toughest beard and prepares the skin for a smooth and luxurious shave. When the shave has been completed it is used again, this time it will contract the pores. Its mild astringent action soothes and heals skin abrasions caused by careless shaving.

THE CROSS OF CARAVACA

This Cross enjoys a very justified reputation, which is defined as the only one in its kind, and bears the name of the region where it was originated. It is called "The Holy Cross of Caravaca". In a remote place in Murcia, Spain, is the church of the Holy Cross where the relic of the Cross of Caravaca is kept. The present generation has made this Cross the symbol of the charity of mercy. The one that believes in the influence of this Cross shall forcibly have a future full of personal satisfactions. The Holy Cross of Caravaca is not an ordinary talisman, product of a purely fanatic imagination, but a celestial influence is justly attributed to it. This Cross could provide indistinctly COMFORT, WORK and even FORTUNE, as long as it is used for noble and human purposes.

With somewhat of magic perfume, a Spanish belief says, and is confirmed by great doctors of secret science of the Pedraza and Ramonet, The Holy Cross of Caravaca can provide many more benefits than those listed in the form which describes it as seeker and preserver of fortune. Rochefoucauld says: "It is easier to gain a fortune than to keep it."

True product of a wise mind, which does not differ in none of our more intimate convictions, when we say that this talisman could provide THE FORTUNE ONLY ONCE, but not in the case of relapsing into vice or error to abuse the powers which frankly does not concede divine graces which do not have as a base the abstinence, loyalty and the good intention.

THAT ASSURES US WHAT MAGNIFICENT MAGNETIC POWERS OUR TALISMANS CAN BE.
